

July 2024
14th Sunday of Year B
Fr Keith Stoakes

Working with Deaf, Deafblind and Hard of Hearing people of all ages, to facilitate and enable them to participate fully in the life of the Church, sharing their own gifts.

The month of July and Westminster Cathedral are both dedicated to the Most Precious Blood. A feast which was celebrated for many centuries on 1st July until 1969 when it was merged with Corpus Christi.

At this time of year we remember those who have recently received their First Holy Communion and Confirmation. We give thanks that we can spend time with Jesus in front of the Blessed Sacrament, celebrate the Mass together and receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

Ezekiel 2:2-5    2 Corinthians 12:7-10    Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples went with him. On the sabbath day Jesus began to teach in the synagogue. Many people heard him and they were astonished. They said, 'How did this man learn to teach? Where did he get this wisdom from? How did he get the power to work these miracles? He is a carpenter. He is the son of Mary. He has brothers: James, Joset, Jude and Simon. His sisters are here with us.' And the people would not accept Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is never accepted in his own country, and not accepted by his relatives and his family.' Jesus could not work miracles in his home town, but he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. Jesus was disappointed that his people did not have faith.
